About Us

Navistar International Corporation traces its roots back to 1831 and today produces International® brand commercial and military trucks, proprietary diesel engines, and IC Bus™ brand school and commercial buses. Navistar products, parts and services are sold through a network of nearly 1,000 dealer locations in the United States, Canada, Mexico and Brazil and by more than 60 dealers in 90 other countries throughout the world. In addition to a strong North American footprint and products, Navistar is now a part of the global TRATON GROUP, a subsidiary of Volkswagen and one of the world's leading commercial vehicle manufacturers.

Navistar is headquartered in Lisle in the Chicago, IL metropolitan area. In addition, we have a vehicle test track located in New Carlisle, IN, and manufacturing facilities in Springfield, OH, Tulsa, OK, Huntsville, AL, San Antonio, TX, and Escobedo, Mexico.

In the Operations Management Development Program (OMDP), you'll gain a broad understanding of Navistar's Truck Operations Group. You'll interact with suppliers, dealers, customers, as well as cross-functional organizations within our company. In addition, you'll have opportunities to work at our world headquarters, technology centers, and manufacturing plants throughout North America. And you'll experience what it's like to work with a diverse, high-performance, automotive culture.
